IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THIS TOUR

Tourism is a much depended upon industry in Kenya so we are mindful that visiting this country is not easily affordable for many of us. We therefore announce this special conservation tour early to give you extra time to raise the funds to come.

We offer a four part instalment payment plan if needed. You will be making a significant contribution to the David Sheldrick Wildlife Trust by attending this tour. We hope you can find creative ways to fundraise to join us.

The Trust has two private Camps at Ithumba in Tsavo East National Park. The new Ithumba Hill Camp is elevated with beautiful 180 degree views over the plains to distant hills. All of our sessions with Wynter, and our meals, will take place at Ithumba Hill. When we're not in session or with the Elephants, there is a lovely pool to cool off in, also with fabulous views.

The older Ithumba Camp is on the flat in a bush setting and is priced at a lower rate since it does not have the expansive views of the new camp. Both Camps offer extremely comfortable accommodation. Each Camp has four spacious tent rooms with ensuite, so the maximum number of people we can house is 14 people sharing.

There are also 8 rooms at Macushla House in Nairobi - we have booked this entire property for our time there.

Note: To enable the maximum number of people attend this special tour, and to raise the most funds possible to support the work of the David Sheldrick Wildlife Trust, we encourage share accommodation.

Single accommodation is therefore extremely limited so it is essential that you inquire early if you have special requirements for a single room. Please email Ruth Yeatman ruth@animaltalkafrica.co.za for the single tour prices.

Also, if you wish to be on a wait list to upgrade to a single, subject to a last minute cancellation, please advise Ruth at the time of your booking.

Tour Fees:

- A. Ithumba Hill (new camp) & Macushla House Share Accommodation US$4,935.00
- B. Ithumba Camp (old camp) & Macushla House Share Accommodation US$4,385.00
