Heart Energy Achieving Real Transformation

29th – 31st January 2027

with Wynter Worsthorne and Linda Tucker

A Virtual HEART Journey with the White Lions

OVERVIEW

You are invited on a journey to listen to Nature and the animals for guidance on positive action for yourself, the environment, and the planet. The White Lion Prides who roam in a protected area of their endemic homelands, guide you on this journey.

Virtual = to experience without being physically present

Immerse yourself into the lands each morning as you are taken on a virtual journey to the prides, who roam freely in the protected space of the Global White Lion Protection Trust. You will have time to connect, listen and communicate with the land and the animals you come across in this virtual space.

The first day is one of introduction and processing. You will need time in between sessions to be in a quiet space to process and journal your experiences, or to just examine the insight and awareness that has come to you during your time connecting with the heartlands. You will be invited to share in the private community forum during this time.

The second day Wynter leads us deeper into the heart connection, to receive messages and guidance from Mother Nature and cocreate positive transformation. Linda Tucker leads you through the Mysteries of the White Lions and the Nile Meridian.

On our final day together, we as a pride and individuals, commit to a course of action according to the messages received from Mother Nature and the principles of the HEART Method.

ITINERARY DETAILS

FRIDAY 29th January

WELCOME AND INTENTION SETTINGS
An Introduction to the HEART Space.

4pm – 5:30pm (Lion-time)

At 4pm we gather in our first on-line session for introductions and intention settings. Linda will be opening this ceremonial space live from the heart of the HeartLands. This is where we create a safe space for everyone; physically, emotionally and on a HEART level. We close the session with preparation for the morning journey into the bushveld to meet the land. Throughout our time together, be aware of your dreams and record them in your journal. They are usually significant to the journey.

SATURDAY 30th January

CLEARING and COMMUNICATING
Listening with a Clean Heart.

6am -7:30am (Lion-time)

We arise early for our first virtual visit to the sacred lands and a personal introduction to the beings who call this place their home. This is a time of greeting and introducing yourself to the land and the wildlife.

During this time, you will be guided into a silent meditation with the Wild, in order to open your heart to be cleansed by the energy of Mother Nature.

Today and each day going forward, make the time to journal your findings from the morning's experience. Every feeling, sensation, mental image or "knowing" will be important for our future time together.

4pm – 7pm (Lion-time)- with a half hour break.
We start our work to truly connect with any messages that may have come to you from the morning session.

This will be an interactive session of sharing and discussions where we look for common themes that become part of the HEART visioning for cocreating positive transformation.

As we end the day together, you will have the opportunity to watch the national geographic documentary "The Return of the White Lion" at your leisure, for those who are not familiar with the story of Linda and the White Lions.

SUNDAY 30th April

THE MYSTERIES
Revealing the StarLion Information.

6am- 7:30am (Lion-time)

After a guided meditation with Wynter to help us clear our hearts and connect with the StarLions, we visit the prides to connect and commune with them. We maintain respectful observation and silent connection into their world, of which you are now a part.

In your own time, once again journal what has shown itself to you during the connection time with the lions and nature. You will be encouraged to share your experiences with other participants, individually or in groups, using the virtual community facilities on offer.

4pm – 5pm

Linda explains the mysteries of the White Lions and the importance of the Nile meridian and the significance of this project in these times.

5:30pm – 7pm

Together we commit to creating change and work with visualisation processes to manifest a new way. The practical implications will be discussed, and a way forward will be found.

We close our time together with Linda leading a ceremony of thanksgiving. Participants reflect on the guidance received in the intention settings and what has been achieved for them personally. We set the intentions for the future as a HEART Pride. A HEART meditation seals our commitment of the HEART, together.

YOUR HUMAN FACILITATORS

LINDA TUCKER

Founder and CEO of the Global White Lion Protection Trust

Linda specialised in Jungian dream psychology and medieval symbolism. She began her research into the White Lion Mysteries after being rescued from lions in the Timbavati in 1991, by Maria Khosa, a Shangaan Sangoma (African Shaman). Maria became her teacher and through her and other lion shamans, Linda was named “Keeper of the White Lions”, an ancient shamanic title. In 2002 Linda founded the Global White Lion Protection Trust, to ensure the protection of not only the White Lions, but also of the indigenous African culture which holds them sacred. Linda, together with Lion ecologist, Jason Turner, reintroduced 2 prides of White Lions into protected freedom in their endemic homeland of Greater Timbavati, where they had been technically extinct for over 20 years. To ensure the survival of these legendary beings, Linda has since then raised millions of dollars to protect large tracts of lands of pristine wilderness in the heart of the White Lion's ancestral heritage lands.

WYNTER WORSTHORNE
Founder of Animaltalk Africa

Wynter has been working as a professional Intuitive Interspecies Communicator since 2002. Having always had a great love and connection with all animals and wildlife, she discovered her ability through various spiritual mentors (including the animals themselves). Her passion for Lions and interest in African Shamanism led her to get in touch with Linda Tucker in 2002. Wynter's animal communication skills were put to good use from the very start of the White Lion re-introduction project. She has worked closely with Linda Tucker and the Global White Lion Protection Trust from the beginning, even before the White Lions started padding their footprints of light back into the lands of the Greater Timbavati. Wynter was the first to be invited to bring specialised donor groups to visit the project and the lions. Her knowledge of the land, the animals and project is extensive and along with her spiritual practice of Intuitive Interspecies Communication comes a practical, earthy energy which is so important in the bush environment.

SIMON JAMIESON
Co-founder of AnimalTalk Africa Trust

Simon is our videographer for the journey. The nature beings respond beautifully to his calm, respectful, patient energy. The results are full engagement and invitations to communicate. Simon first visited the White Lions in 2010. He has been active in his support of Animaltalk Africa since 2009. Despite qualifying as an aeronautical engineer, his career has mainly been in direct sales, sales training and sales management within the financial services sector. As a father of three independently minded adults, he is deeply passionate about the future of the planet and understands that the preservation of all is based upon the ultimate balance between nature, humans and other animals. His skills in people management, sales, and organisational processes greatly assist Wynter in enabling her work to reach more people and have a greater effect towards their joint objectives. His deep understanding of the spirit of this work helps participants to manifest the information they receive during the StarLion Journeys into manageable realistic goals for the group and the individual.
